

Person Specification (Sessional Tutor Specialist in Modern and Contemporary Art Histories)

ATTRIBUTES	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE
1. Relevant Experience	Experience of UG or Foundation level teaching in Art History
2. Education and Training	Undergraduate Degree within Art or Art History or related discipline Postgraduate Degree (Taught and/or Research) within Modern Art History or related discipline	A relevant Teaching Qualification Research Degree relevant to Modern and Contemporary Art Histories
3. General & Special Knowledge	Current research and/or professional practice relevant to the post Understanding of relevant current Teaching, Learning & Research agendas	Familiarity with quality assurance processes and procedures
4. Skills & Abilities	Academic related practice and research Skills Ability to effectively employ a wide range of teaching methods Excellent communication skills and working knowledge of IT Ability to work effectively with a wide range of individuals within a team Competence in planning, administration, organisation and delivery of teaching and assessment	Ability to engage effectively in review and development of course curriculum Ability to employ innovative approaches to pedagogy