

Person Specification – Foundation Diploma in Art and Design – Foundation Sessional Tutor (Design)

ATTRIBUTES	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE
1. Relevant Experience	Experience of teaching for Foundation Diploma in Art and Design at Levels 3/4 Experience in professional practice related to Design	Experience of assessment for Foundation Diploma in Art and Design Experience of working with a virtual learning environment
2. Education and Training	Undergraduate Degree within Design discipline or equivalent	Postgraduate Degree (Taught and/or Research) within Design Discipline Qualification in Teaching and Learning
3. General & Special Knowledge	Professional practice as a Designer Specialist knowledge of own subject and its professional and/or research frameworks Understanding of current Design agendas and the context for both Art and Design in the UK and Internationally	Familiarity with Health and Safety as it applies to the Art and Design teaching environment Understanding of current learning and teaching agendas at Foundation level
4. Skills & Abilities	Fashion and Textiles practical skills, for instance: sewing, pattern cutting, print for fashion, weaving etc. Ability to effectively employ a wide range of teaching methods and innovative approaches to support students with a range of abilities and interests Ability to work flexibly to engage students working towards a range of disciplines Excellent communication skills Ability to work effectively within a team Ability to work with a range of individuals from different backgrounds Knowledge and skills in the use of software, particularly Adobe creative suite Competence in devising and delivering projects	A breadth of additional practical skills, for example: Working with wood, metal and plastic Clay work and casting Film and video production and editing Documentation, presentation, editorial lay-out